WORKHOUSE MUSEUM

Enter the gates of Ripon Workhouse and you are in the world of the Victorian poor. Climb stairs worn smooth by the feet of paupers making their way to the Guardian's Room to plead their case for some help. The workhouse is one of the most complete in the country. New for this year is the Main Block with the Master and Matrons quarters, paupers' kitchen, dining room and schoolroom.

Teas and coffees, rag-rugging and object-handling sessions available

PRISON AND POLICE MUSEUM

Come and visit our 200 year old Prison & Police Museum. Walk past the whipping post, pillory and jugs to be welcomed into our cells telling the story of crime and punishment in the Victorian era.

Our knowledgeable and entertaining guides will take you on a tour of punishment - shot drill, treadmills, prison hulks and transportation and the development of policing. You will be shut in a cell and stretched on the birching stool - it's an experience that will stay with you!

COURTHOUSE MUSEUM

Opened during the reign of King William IV, to enter our Courthouse is stepping back to an era where the age of criminal responsibility was 7 years old.

Our guides will show you the step in the dock where children would stand in order to see and be seen over the top of the dock panelling. Your group can take part in a mock trial with costumes, facilitated by our volunteers. Decide whether the defendant is whipped, sentenced to hard labour or transported to Van Dieman's Land. We recommend taking part in an historic trial - ask about it when you book!
