We look forward to welcoming you to Ripon Museum Trust.

The Workhouse Museum is located in the original Ripon Union Workhouse, and a workhouse has stood on the site since 1776. The present building was completed in January 1855.

The Prison & Police Museum is housed in the former Ripon Liberty Prison, which later became Ripon Police Station.

Information on pricing can be found below.

Additional Information

The maximum number of guests including the hirer and their staff at the Prison & Police Museum is 35. A ration of 10 guests to one agent is required at the Workhouse Museum.

Both of our museums are wheelchair accessible with accessible toilet facilities.

Hirers will need to provide a copy of their public liability insurance with a minimum policy of £2m as well as a risk assessment before the hire.

A record of Information Exchange will be provided before the hire.

The remaining balance is due two weeks before the event.

There is strictly no filming, streaming or photography allowed inside either museum.

No alcohol can be served during hires.

Terms and conditions can be downloaded from our website.

Please download a Booking Request form from our website and email it to lettings@riponmuseums.co.uk and our Operations Officer will be in touch to confirm dates.
